

Kita Kaze Fee list for 2011-12

- Monthly dues

This is your monthly club membership fee is $40 and covers your training at regular classes, twice per week. If there are two or more in the same family training in the club, the fee is $35 per month per student. If you tell your instructor well ahead of time that you cannot be at training for an extended period or can only drop in occasionally, the fee will be $10 per class. If you pay your monthly fee and simply do not show up, the fees are non-refundable. We assume that, if you paid your fees, you are coming. We have to arrange for instructors to be here to teach you and that is partly what your fees are for.

If you wish to pay for the year in advance, the rate is $350 (September 12 through June 15).

If you have two or more family members in the club, the rate is $300 for the year per person.

- Kobudo/Iaido

If you are practicing kobudo, there is a $20 monthly fee. If you are practicing iaido, there is a $20 monthly fee. If you wish to pay for kobudo or iaido for the year, the fee is $150 or $280 for both.

- ShotoCanada

ShotoCanada is our parent karate group that gives us our technical guidance. Annual dues are $25 juniors and $35 adults. These fees are due once per year in September. For beginners, they are required when you join the regular club.

- Insurance $35

- Grading

Every time you test for a belt, there is a $15 fee, pass or not. If you receive a new belt, there is an additional $15 fee. There is a separate fee range for brown and black belts. Please see the ShotoCanada members website page.

Equipment

- gi - this is the uniform you wear. A beginner's gi will cost $40 to $60 depending on size and shipping costs. You order those through the club instructor.
- Protective gear - all males require a groin protector. We can order cups designed for karate for about $30.
- Wearing a chest and groin protector is optional for women.

- After about a year's training, you will require fitted teeth protectors and sparring gloves. You can have the teeth protectors fitted at a dental clinic or you can use the guards that you soak in hot water and mould to your teeth. We will order the sparring gloves for you. They cost about $30.

A child joining the regular club following a beginners' course would have the following fees for the first full month of training:
